WOMEN'S SUPPORT CIRCLES BUILD SELF WORTH AND PURPOSE...

How a safe and caring circle builds self worth...

It begins by valuing yourself enough to take the risk of joining the circle.
It continues by developing trust in the circle.
It is cultivated by sharing - giving - and listening - receiving.
It develops as you take risks and see how it is to show up purely as your real self.
It blossoms when you realize that you are one unique "flower" without whom your "garden" circle would not be quite as beautiful in its ability to flourish.
Your self worth grows by leaps and bounds when you know that if you do not show up you will be sorely missed.
